JUDGMENT
AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

The defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Pursuant to Guideline Section 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct an immediate mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment and allow the defendant to participate in any sex offender treatment program that they offer.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Christopher McLean Delany, is hereby committed on the Single-Count Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 48 months.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of life under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 05-02 with the exception that he may travel throughout the state of California in connection with his employment in the fishing and boating industry;
2. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from his person;

5. The defendant shall register as a sex offender, and keep the registration current, in each jurisdiction where he resides, where he is an employee, and where he is a student, to the extent the registration procedures have been established in each jurisdiction. When registering for the first time, the defendant shall also register in the jurisdiction in which the conviction occurred if different from his jurisdiction of residence. The defendant shall provide proof of registration to the Probation Officer within three days of release from imprisonment;
6. The defendant shall possess and use only those computers and computer-related devices, screen user names, passwords, email accounts, and internet service providers (ISPs) which have been disclosed to the Probation Officer upon commencement of supervision. Any changes or additions are to be disclosed to the Probation Officer prior to the first use. Computer and computer-related devices are personal computers, personal data assistants (PDAs), internet appliances, electronic games, cellular telephones, and digital storage media, as well as their peripheral equipment, that can access, or can be modified to access the internet, electronic bulletin boards, and other computers;

The defendant shall submit his person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and his effects to search at any time, with or without warrant, and by any law enforcement or Probation Officer with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervised release or unlawful conduct by the defendant, and by any Probation Officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions;
10. The defendant shall participate in outpatient psychological counseling and/or psychiatric treatment and/or a sex offender treatment program as approved and directed by the Probation Officer. The Probation Officers shall disclose the presentence report and/or any previous mental health evaluations or reports to the treatment provider;
11. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's psychological and/or psychiatric disorder(s) to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall not view or possess any materials, including pictures, photographs, books, writings, drawings, videos, or video games depicting and/or describing child pornography, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(8). This provision does not encompass persons under the age of 18, such as waiters, cashiers, ticket vendors, and similar persons with whom the defendant must deal with in order to obtain ordinary and usual commercial services. This provision also does not encompass his nephew assuming and on the condition he gets his sister’s approval for such contact and communication;
17. The defendant shall not affiliate with, own, control, volunteer and/or be employed in any capacity by a business and/or organization that causes him to regularly contact persons under the age of 18;
18. The defendant shall not affiliate with, own, control, and/or be employed in any capacity by a business whose principal product is the production and/or selling of materials depicting and/or describing “sexually explicit conduct,” as defined at 18, U.S.C. § 2256(2);
19. The defendant’s employment shall be approved by the Probation Officer, and any change in employment must be pre-approved by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall submit the name and address of the proposed employer to the Probation Officer at least 10 days prior to any scheduled change unless such employment makes it impossible to give such 10 days notice which in such event defendant will give notice to the Probation Officer as soon as possible; and
20. The defendant’s residence shall be approved by the Probation Officer, and any change in residence must be pre-approved by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall submit the address of the proposed residence to the Probation Officer at least 10 days prior to any scheduled move.
